

“ Do not go where the path may lead
Go instead where there is no path and leave a trail ”

This popular saying holds true for all great leaders of the world. It is also a testimony to the path that D.Shivakumar chose in his life. His journey from a dedicated student to a renowned businessman is a success story of a leader who carved his own path. The Managing Director of Nokia India, D.Shivakumar is a true example of a leader who led business differently. With over 20 years of experience in marketing and management he has unmatched knowledge and expertise in heading leading brands. He has managed more than 35 brands like Hindustan Lever, Philips, Nokia, and many more in his career.

IMA gives you an opportunity to meet this unique personality at IMA's Rendezvous series - An IMA CEO Forum. We invite you to be a part of this Rendezvous for an experience that is sure to leave an everlasting impact on you and your business. IMA looks forward to having D.Shivakumar with us and his talk on "Common mistakes a CEO makes" is something that is awaited eagerly.
